Dear Coach-

We hope this email finds you healthy and safe during these very trying times. The COVID-19 outbreak has impacted us all.

With everyone's health and safety as our top priority, and following the guidance of medical experts, we have made the decision to suspend all U.S. Soccer Coaching Courses through June 30, 2020. We understand the impact that this decision has on you and appreciate your understanding as we collectively navigate these complex and uncertain times.

We are cautiously optimistic that we will organize some programming this summer. Please stay connected with your member association for the latest updates about U.S. Soccer coaching courses.

If a course you are currently registered for has been cancelled, a refund may be requested, but please note that, due to high volume at this time, refund processing may take up to three to four weeks.

We encourage you to stay at home, practice social distancing and help us to BEND THE CURVE!

Thank you on behalf of U.S. Soccer.
